DON'T SHOOT KRUSHEV!

We urge our Hungarian, Ukrainian, Polish and Russian friends not to shoot this butcher if he persists in coming here to spread his propaganda thru T.V. into our homes. After Khrushchev's bloody rule in your countries you could hardly be blamed if you did end his useless life. But since he has purged himself to the top communist position, his death could bring on a World War.

As you think of your loved ones who have died at the hands of Khrushchev, say a prayer that you can control your anger. Very few people in this country know what Communism is. But you need not be quiet. If you are, you can hardly be classed as human.

We remember well when thousands of Ukrainians signed a petition to Roosevelt shortly after he was elected asking him to protest over 30 thousand Ukrainian farmers killed in one week by this devil's orders. Roosevelt did nothing, and that year an estimated 400,000 Ukrainians were slaughtered.

This writer has witnessed a moving picture of 9439 Ukrainian bodies fully clothed being removed from graves by Germans as they liberated the Ukrainians. Later in 1944, after the Germans had been driven out, best reports are that more than 3 million more Ukrainians were slaughtered under the direction of this murderer.

At the start of this slaughter, Khrushchev invited all Ukrainian leaders to a meeting to discuss peace and promptly had them murdered by the Communist army. This is the man Eisenhower is to honor in the White House.

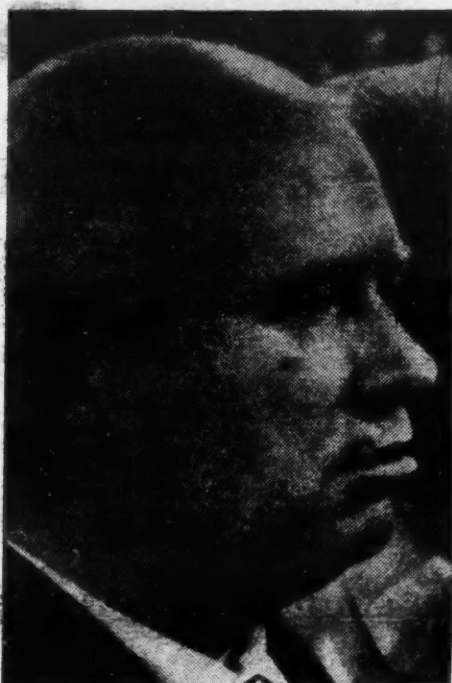

During 1956 when Hungarian Christians revolted against communist tyranny, this demon invited the Hungarian leaders into a truce meeting and had them killed, then sent 140,000 communist troops with machine guns and 4000 tanks to kill more than 40,000 Hungarians and wreck their country. This devil Khrushchev later ordered 47,000 Hungarian boys between 12 and 20 loaded in box cars and shipped to Siberia. What right have these murdering beast in Hungary? The same right they have in 17 countries they have taken over, and the same right they will have in the U. S. if we don't change our wishbones to backbones.

The Katyn Massacre is one of the most inhuman in history. When the Germans forced the communists out of that part of Poland, they discovered four graves filled with 14,000 Polish officers and chaplains in full uniform, their hands wired behind them, all shot in the back of the head. They had been assembled to be moved for protection.

We are to welcome a criminal who makes Al. Capone appear like a Saintly amateur.

Pictures appear in our press showing Eisenhower in close association with "his friend Marshal George Zhukov" in Leningrad in 1945. Where is Zhukov now and did not Khrushchev put him there after using him to destroy other communists who stood in his way? Eisenhower now trusts the devil who liquidated his friend Zhukov.

"WE WILL BURY YOU"

Khrushchev — Apostle of "Brotherhood"

"If you don't like us, don't accept our invitations, and don't invite us to come to see you. Whether you like it or not, history is on our side. WE WILL BURY YOU!"

Nikita S. Khrushchev

Statement at Kremlin reception, Nov. 17, 56.

Truman's consoling words on Stalin were "Good old Joe". Will Ike's be "dear old Krush"?

Many people in Europe believe U.S.A. stands for United Saps of America.

When this maniac was showing communist progress to Nixon he did not mention this was at the cost of death to millions of Japanese, Italians, Germans, Polish, Hungarians, Latvians, Lithuanians, Estonians and millions of Christian Russians who were worked and starved to death in mines, on dams and roads.

Thousands of Nuns were taken from these countries and worked as slaves in the rain, their feet wrapped in rags while they starved. And now these Bolsheviks boast of their progress and culture.

Raised without Christ since 1917 and with no morals, they came into Germany at surrender, stripping groups of girls and women in the streets until hardly one between 8 and 80 was not raped over and over in the communist-occupied part of Germany. The tortures in Ukraine and Hungary would shame animals, and if described here would turn the stomach of our readers. Some of these victims have visited Common Sense. The average person cannot comprehend that the communists have killed so many since 1917. No one knows how many, but best estimate is around 120 million. The estimate in China now is between 50 and 60 million. While Khrushchev is dining in the White House, the communists will be slaughtering innocent people in Tibet, so far last few weeks 80,000. Over 800 million in the world are now enslaved and more on the way. When will Khrushchev order the release of our American boys held prisoners by the communists?

This murderer is not coming here to compromise, but to put us back to sleep.

Pay no attention to these liberal cowards who say we should put this bully on the same level as Nixon. Nixon has not murdered and tortured millions. Has he?

The communists were grateful to Eisenhower for turning more than two million Russians back to be slaughtered after they escaped into Germany under the belief that America's Army was opposed to communism and would protect anti-communists. The Bolsheviks should be grateful for Ike ordering our army to retreat from Berlin leaving it behind the communist lines 110 miles and staying out of Berlin three weeks to allow the communists to rape all women, strip the factories of machinery, and rob the art galleries, using our Lend-Lease trucks, part of 11 Billion Lend-Lease on which we have not been paid a dollar.

As Khrushchev dines in the White House, how much respect will he have for Ike knowing it was he who ordered U.S. troops to retreat and leave Berlin helpless behind the communist lines? Ike took full responsibility for this retreat from Berlin in his speech, March 3, 1949, before Association of the Bar, City of New York.

Khrushchev will be happy as the cameras click and he thinks how hopeless people in many countries will be as they see communism's top murderer welcomed in the only country in which they had hope. Khrushchev and Ike will make a fine brotherhood picture.

SOVIET MARSHAL VOROSHILOV SAID:

"We captured Kiev without fighting, by promising the 11,000 Czarist officers and wives could go to homes." . . . "Once surrendered, we shot all the men and boys, put women and girls into BROTHELS for use of our army. My army needed women and I was concerned with men's health, not the women as they were all dead within three months." Said Voroshilov to U.S. ambassador, Wm. C. Bullitt: "Otherwise we could not have captured Kiev."

Khrushchev declared:

"In the west they say that since the Geneva Conference something has changed, and the Soviet delegates now smile. If somebody thinks that the Soviet smiles imply the abandonment of the doctrines of Marx, Engels and Stalin, then they greatly deceive themselves. Those who expect this, will have to wait until the lobster whistles in the sea."

If we have not learned after 42 years that the word of a communist is worth nothing, then there is no hope.

They have packed our country with spies and have stolen our most valuable military secrets. They insult us every day. They have told us a thousand times by print and orally they will take us over. They have done it to

WHO SET UP COMMUNISM?

COMMON SENSE has thousands of pieces of incontestable proof that Bolshevism and/or Communism was set up and directed by people who call themselves Jews. In face of these facts some gullible people fear to face the truth because of the millions of dollars spent to brainwash them.

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

(Omsk, Siberia)

March 1, 1919.

My dear Colonel Barrows:

I have just received your letter of January 29th, forwarded by Baron Hoven of General Romanovsky's staff, who has just arrived in Omsk.

* * * * *

It is probably unwise to say this loudly in the United States but the Bolshevik movement is and has been since its beginning guided and controlled by Russian Jews of the greediest type, who have been in the United States.

* * * * *

Unfortunately, a few of our people in the United States, especially those with good lungs, seem to think that the Bolsheviks are as deserving of a hearing as any real political party with us. This is what the Russian cannot understand and I must say that without being thought one sided, I should not hesitate to shoot without trial if I had the power any persons who admitted for one moment that they were Bolsheviks. I would just as soon see a mad dog running about a lot of children.

* * * * *

You will think I am not about this matter but it is I feel sure, one which is going to bring great trouble on the United States when the judgment of history shall be recorded on the part we have played. It is very largely our fault that bolshevism has spread as it has and I do not believe we will be found guilty of the thousands of lives uselessly and cruelly sacrificed in wild orgies of bloodshed to establish an autocratic and despotic rule of principles which have been rejected by every generation of mankind which has dabbled with them.

* * * * *

With kind regards to all friends,

I am, Very sincerely yours,

WAKE UP, AMERICANS!

By Otto Garr Tague

Republished from Cincinnati Inquirer.

The device of transfer has become a clever, crafty thing of common use by defenders of and apologists for the many agencies that have been established either for bankrupting us or pushing us into some form of world government.

This device is of special value to those who go overboard in trying to make foreign aid something other than the burden it is on the shoulders of the American taxpayer. You produce figures showing the cost to our people and immediately the advocates of foreign aid, while totally ignoring the figures, transfer their witty attention to the person producing the figures . . . They ridicule the critic and his deductions . . . Put words into his mouth that he never uttered . . . When he uses Santa Claus as a symbol of our prodigality with billions, they pay no attention to the figures used, but accuse the writer of libeling Santa.

Well, here we go again . . . From July 1, 1945, to and including June 30, 1956, foreign aid cost the taxpayers of this nation $63,940,735,000 . . . This total was made up of $49,095,405,000 for grants, and utilized loans of $14,845,330,000 . . . Every dollar of which came from the pockets of American taxpayers! . . . What, if any, return on the investment they received no one seems to know.

I did not pick these figures out of my hat . . . They came from a report submitted by the Library of Congress Legislative Reference Service dated May 29, 1957 . . . And I would like to see any user of the device of transfer explain them away by attacking me for saying that the giveaway involved resembles the goodhearted and free-spending efforts of Santa Claus in distributing gifts paid for with other people's money!

IN MEMORIAM:

James V. Forrestal

AMERICAN PATRIOT

by Hilary Grey

Reprinted from American Mercury Magazine, Inc., 250 West 57th St., New York, 19, New York. - 1 year subscription $4.00.

On May 22, 1949, James V. Forrestal, former Defense Secretary, fell or was pushed to his death from a 16th story window of Bethesda Naval Hospital. The official verdict was "suicide" but President Truman came, unwittingly perhaps, nearer to the truth when he declared that Forrestal was "a victim of the Cold War." For, like Sen. Joseph McCarthy eight years later, Forrestal was hounded to a premature death because of his anti-Communist views.

This brief review of Forrestal's fight, which culminated—after intense smear and persecution in death, from what was virtually a prisoner's cell, must serve as a very unworthy testimonial until the complete story is told, revealing Forrestal for what he was: a martyr fighting single-handed against treason on an unparalleled scale, and dying a hero's death for the America he loved.

Forrestal had been president of Baruch-influenced Wall Street international banking house of Dillon, Read and Co., and on the strength of this qualification was apparently deemed safe for important positions in the Roosevelt and Truman Governments, including that of Defense Secretary. But James V. Forrestal was an honest man, who had become increasingly aware of the Zionist-Communist tie-up and its friends in the Governments in which he served. As long ago as 1944 he had written to a friend:

I find that whenever any American suggests that we act in accordance with the needs of our own security he is apt to be called a fascist or imperialist, while if Uncle Joe suggests that he needs the Baltic Provinces, half of Poland, all of Bessarabia and access to the Mediterranean, all hands agree that he is a fine, frank, candid and generally delightful fellow who is very easy to deal with because he is so explicit in what he wants. (Life Magazine, Oct. 15, 1951.)

Then, in early 1945, as Navy Secretary and a member of the inner War Cabinet, Forrestal had laid before Roosevelt a plan based largely on psychological warfare for the early ending of the war with Japan without the use of the Atom Bomb and without Soviet intervention.

Fleet Admiral William D. Leahy confirmed the part played by "the scientists and others." On page 441 of Fleet Admiral William D. Leahy's I WAS THERE, we quote Admiral Leahy's exact words, as follows:

It is my opinion that the use of this barbarous weapon at Hiroshima and Nagasaki was of no material assistance in our war against Japan. The Japanese were already defeated and ready to surrender because of the effective sea blockade and the successful bombing with conventional weapons.

It was my reaction that the scientists and others wanted to make this test because of the vast sums that had been spent on the project. Truman knew that; and so did the other people involved. 'Bomb' is the wrong word to use for this new weapon. It is not a bomb. It is not an explosive. It is a poisonous thing that kills people by its deadly radioactive reaction, more than by the explosive force it develops. (See Oct. 1958 American Mercury, page 35).

Since Japan had begun to emit peace feelers as early as the winter of 1944, Forrestal's brilliant plan had excellent chance of success and could even have brought about "unconditional surrender" without further blood shed to either side. It would have prevented the terrible stain to American honor and the untold bitterness engendered by the Atom Bomb and the virtual handing over of China to International Communism as a reward for a phony Soviet participation of exactly one week! In an article in Look Magazine, issue dated May 23, 1950, Admiral Ellis M. Zacharias, Deputy Director of the Office of United States Intelligence in World War II, refers to the consequences of the rejection of the Forrestal plan as: developments of immense historical significance that are likely to affect all of us for the rest of our lives and even the lives of succeeding generations.

The Catholic Mirror (U.S.A.), July, 1950, issue, also commenting on the plan's rejection, bluntly asks the question:

Does not there remain the real question—the horrible question; was there treachery in Washington itself that was fully determined to prolong the war until the full harvest of the treachery of Yalta could be reaped by Stalin . . . ?

It is now known that the U.S. Government actually planned that the Soviet Union should occupy Japan, but this diabolical plot was thwarted by General Douglas MacArthur flying in and taking over (revealed in a broadcast in Chicago on Aug. 2, 1953, by Frank Kirkpatrick). After the war, Forrestal tried to discover why his plan had been rejected and why, if the A Bomb had to be dropped six months after the Japanese had indicated their desire to surrender, the two cities with the largest Christian population, but of no real military importance in themselves, were chosen as targets. These questions were dangerous enough but James Forrestal did not stop there. His posthumously published Diaries, The Forrestal Diaries, published by Viking Press, U.S.A., in 1951, were to throw much further light on the international conspiracy.

His Diary entry for December 27, 1945, for instance, carries the deadly remark of British Prime Minister Chamberlain that "America and the world Jews had forced England into the war." (And Forrestal had been told this by Joseph P. Kennedy, former American Ambassador to Britain.) In mid-July, 1946, Forrestal recorded that Rear Admiral E. W. Stone (American Chief of the Allied Control Commission for Italy) had told him that "the general opinion was that Ben Cohen was the influence on Byrnes' staff which advocated surrendering everything to Russia." (Byrnes was Truman's Secretary of State. Ben Cohen, original Roosevelt brainstruter, at a meeting of the United Nations Political Committee in Paris in January, 1952, called for "a United Nations legion as the basis of an international armed force" (London Daily Telegraph, January 3, 1952.)

But the bell could be heard tolling for James Forrestal when he strongly opposed the Truman Administration's backing for the Zionist aggression on Arab Palestine. The powerful Bernard M. Baruch, behind the scenes Dictator of the U.S. for over 40 years, warned Forrestal at a luncheon on February 8, 1948 "not to be active in this particular matter" (i.e. anti-Zionism) as he "was already identified, to a degree that was not in (his) own interest, with opposition to the United Nations policy on Palestine." (Page 364 of The Forrestal Diaries.) Forrestal prophetically warned that the entire Arab-Moslem world of 450 million would be alienated from the U.S.A. as a result. The London paper, Labour Israel, issue dated June 3, 1949, even recorded Forrestal as having openly complained to the White House that "Jews were endangering the security of the United States."

At once a gigantic smear campaign of extreme viciousness was launched against Forrestal, particularly by Walter Winchell and Drew Pearson. It was freely suggested that he was mentally deranged, and he was in consequence locked up in Bethesda Naval Hospital in a room on the 16th floor. Page 554 of the Forrestal Diaries indicates that hospitalization by psychiatrist, Wm.

KHRUSHCHEV ARRIVES WITH THE "PEACE MOVEMENT".

"War to the hilt between communism and capitalism is inevitable. Today, of course, we are not strong enough to attack. Our time will come in 20 or 30 years. To win we shall need the element of surprise. The bourgeoisie will have to be put to sleep. So we shall begin by launching the most spectacular peace movement on record. There will be electrifying overtures and unheard of concessions. The capitalist countries, stupid and decadent, will rejoice to cooperate in their own destruction. They will leap at another chance to be friends. As soon as their guard is down, We SHALL SMASH THEM WITH OUR CLENCHED FIST."

Dimitry Z. Manuisky (Jew)
Presiding Officer UN Security Council, '49
From a speech before the Lenin School of Political Warfare, 1931.

E. Menninger, was indicated. (Louis Johnson brought Dr. Menninger into this case.)

Communists and Left-Wingers thought-out the world made—and continue to make—great propaganda use of the fact that "the American Defense Minister had to be locked up because he was seeing Communists under the bed and was insane."

Forrestal's elder brother, Henry Forrestal, visited Bethesda Naval Hospital and implored the authorities not to leave his brother "cooped up" on the 16th floor. No notice was taken of this. He also approached authorities in Washington in an unsuccessful effort to secure his brother's release. James Forrestal was a lapsed Catholic and, on being incarcerated in the Hospital and perhaps with some foreboding of what was in store for him, sent for his old friend, Monsignor S. Sheehy, now of Catholic University, Washington. Five times Monsignor Sheehy endeavored to see Forrestal. Each time he was refused admittance.

Meanwhile Henry Forrestal left for Washington on May 22 in a final effort to secure his brother's release, but it was too late. Forrestal was found dead at 2 a.m., Sunday, May 22, after a drop from the 16th floor window on the same day.

In connection with The Forrestal Diaries, page 555, Father Sheehy said that Forrestal went into a small diet kitchen on the same floor, which he had been encouraged to use, and fell to his death from its unguarded window.

Father Sheehy declared, on Forrestal's death, "Had I been allowed to see my friend, Jim Forrestal, receive him back in the Church, and put his mind at ease with the oldest and most reliable medicine known to mankind, he would be alive today. His blood is on the heads of those who kept me from seeing him." (American Mercury, Dec. 1950) Forrestal's poignant last words to his Wall Street friend Robert Lovett, later Defense Secretary, "They're (the Soviet Union) going to catch us unprepared, Bob," show us that his only concern at the close of his life was for his beloved country.

The suicide verdict was not readily believed, so hospital authorities announced that Forrestal had been threatening to take his life by throwing himself out the window. What powerful interests kept James V. Forrestal on the 16th floor if there was a possibility of suicide?

17 other countries. Will America be next?

Only Spain got loose; that cost a million and a half lives. How many will it cost us? If we have to fight when is the best time? Our military authorities say they are gaining on us. Millions of people under communism await arms. Hungary begged for them in 1956. Why have we not spent some of the billions put down foreign rat holes to smuggle arms to people who would disrupt communism while we bomb the Kremlin into a cinder? The liberals say this means war. We will have it anyway, unless we bankrupt ourselves continually preparing so that Khrushchev takes over peacefully, or submit to World Government which is slavery in another form.

A dispatch from London Aug. 30, reveals that communists in U.S. have received detailed instructions from Moscow how to make the beast from Moscow's visit most effective and to furnish physical protection.

Since our Press is so completely censored by Jewish economic power to prevent us from realizing what they are doing to us, then it behooves us to read the private Pharisaic Press to learn what they are whispering behind our backs. The following are all direct quotes, often abbreviated:

JAKE JAVITS RIDES AGAIN!

by the Judge

Senator Jacob Javits

They are finally catching up with Slippery Jake Javits, the pseudo Republican Senator from New York, as a recent issue of the Congressional Record reveals.

In a bill before the United States Senate which would have eliminated Loyalty Oaths from those getting Federal Loans under the National Defense Educational Act, Javits nearly got away with one of his frequent shyster tricks.

Senator Mundt of South Dakota, a vigorous fighter against subversives for many years, offered an amendment to the original bill so that those wishing to borrow money from the Government for their education would be required to sign a statement that they had never supported any organization advocating illegal overthrow of the Government, and that they were loyal to the Constitution of the United States.

Javits took the Senate floor to oppose Mundt's amendment and said he could, quote: "produce hundreds, and I think there may be thousands, of letters from young students and from professors who say this is an insult to their intelligence and to their Americanism, and they do not want the education at that price."

He then went on to uphold the elimination of the Loyalty Oath from the Bill (C. R. 12765 of the Congressional Record of July 22, 1959). Senator Holland of Florida said he had communicated with the United States Office of Education, and they informed him that out of 1220 institutions only seven (7) of them had refused to approve of the oath provision.

Senator Russell of Georgia, replying to Javits said he had not received a single complaint from a single young citizen of his state who felt insulted by being asked to say he believes in the Constitution of the United States and is prepared to defend it. (C. R. 12769 of the same date). The next day Javits made a quick switch and offered an amendment to Mundt's amendment which would strike out the protective provisions in the Mundt Bill and merely require that anyone getting a loan of Federal Funds under the National Defense Education Act should take an oath to uphold the Constitution of the United States. Notice the way he switched. First he was against any kind of an oath; then he takes Mundt's Amendment, cuts the guts out of it, and merely requires the borrower to promise to defend the United States Constitution. Javits does not want any borrower to be penalized for belonging to a subversive organization. For proof see Col. 1, C. R. page 12918, July 23, 1959. The following day, July 23, Senator Russell of Georgia, at C. R. page 12915, 1959, again tore into Javits and said Javits had offered his, (Javits) amendment as a substitute for Senator Mundt's Bill, and later modified his own amendment somewhat by adding a perjury provision. Senator Russell likened Javits to the character in the Bible who, although he was the last to come to work and worked only a small fraction of the time put in by the first worker, nevertheless got the same wages. Senator Russell said Javits was an 11th hour convert, and would get credit for fathering a loyalty provision which he had originally opposed, and furthermore Javits by putting in a provision for punishing for perjury endangered the proper enforcement of the Mundt Bill because of the difficulty in legally establishing the crime of perjury, as few convictions are obtained on perjury prosecutions. Much to Javits chagrin the bill was sent back to the Committee to be re-written, an outcome which brought Javits to his feet to say he spoke "with a rather heavy heart."

It is doubtful if few members of the Senate would try a trick like Javits, i.e., copy another Senator's Bill, cut the guts out of it, add a confusing provision and then try to get credit for a so-called "anti-subversive" bill, after showing clearly that he was against the intent of the very bill he had appropriated as his own.

READ EM AND WEEP

The following news item appeared in The National Jewish Post and Opinion, April 3, 1959, reproduced here in its entirety:

PRAYER CHANGE BY POPE HAILED

A major text change in the Good Friday prayer, authorized by Pope John, which almost reversed the meaning of the previous prayer, was hailed here as a boon to a process of text revision which has been going on among all religious groups in the U. S.

The original prayer, in Latin reads: "Let us pray for the perfidious Jews." Pope Pius had changed the word "perfidious" to "unbelieving" and Pope John's announcement dropped the adjective altogether.

Irving Engel, president of the American Jewish Committee, expressed gratification over the action. The Committee has been engaged over the past decade in a continuous process of text revision of offensive material in religious school books. Three major U. S. universities are involved in the study.

From Rome it was learned that the change came about as the result of the importunations of Col. Lamberto Vitali, Italian Jewish leader. Since 1946, Col. Vitali has addressed 41 petitions to the vatican on the prayer offensive to Jews. (Note that Vatican is not capitalized!)

Editors Note

It cannot be denied that one of the main objectives of the National Conference of Christians and (so-called) Jews is to force Christian religions to omit reference to Christ's Crucifixion by the so-called "Jews".

The American Jewish Committee, on page 57 of their "1954 Budget", boast they are rewriting text books for Catholic and Protestant Churches; on page 58 they disclose to their so-called Jewish contributors that they are guiding the education department of National Council of Churches. In the 1953 Budget, which is a confidential report to their so-called "Jewish" members, on page 122 they state that they are writing the speeches for the Christian National Chaplains of the American Legion.

We are being judaized just as set out in the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, which the so-called "Jews" say is a forgery.
